

Janet Cassettari

EMAIL

janetcassettari@btopenworld.com

Profile

Financial services professional and board member, with extensive experience in reinsurance, client management, business development, product development, project management and administration (both within the UK and globally).

Current business interests/directorships

Non-Executive Director: Metropolitan Police Friendly Society (www.mpfs.org.uk) - June 2010 - present. Since 2012 also Chair of the Member Relations Committee and member of the Nomination and Governance Committee.

Additionally various project work undertaken in the financial services sector primarily with a marketing and/or research focus.

Previous employment/directorships

Director: Re12 Ltd July 2006 - June 2014 (when company closed)
FCA authorised and regulated company providing services for the financial sector with a focus on longevity and reinsurance placement.

Director: Janet Cassettari Consulting - March 2003 - June 2011. A company providing product development, marketing and project management services primarily to the financial sector- now operated on a sole trader basis.

Director: Moving Minds Ltd - May 2003 - August 2006. A company providing psychological claims management services to the financial sector. Board member in the start up and development phases but resigned to focus on other businesses.

Manager: SCOR Life Reinsurance - September 1996 - December 2002.
Responsible for the management of the London office including budgets, client and staff management and all related functions and strategies for development of the business.

Mercantile and General Reinsurance (now Swiss Re) - August 1972 - July 1996. Pre 1985 various roles across administration and marketing. Post 1985 Business Development Manager for UK and Ireland. Additionally between 1989-1992 responsible for business development in the Caribbean and post 1992 critical illness product champion responsible for global development and management of the project team.