

Origos takes an innovative approach to management and leadership development and training, with a focus on fostering collaboration and employee engagement - we help you bring about lasting change.

Our tailored programmes - Accelerate & Stepping Up, are designed specifically for the mutual sector, in partnership with the AFM. If you're looking for inspiring, thought provoking development for yourself and your team, whilst building a network of like-minded individuals in the Mutual Sector - our programmes are for you.

Join other like-minded individuals on our programmes specifically designed to make you a leader or manager - whether you're just starting out or you have some time under your belt we can help reframe, refocus and give you the tools to excel.

Our workshops are lead by a team of talented trainers who will spend time working with you to refine your leadership and management skills. There's a 16 seat limit for each programme, and they're sure to be snatched up quickly, so register today!
