EMPLOYERS GUIDE
MSC IN STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP
2022-2025
School of Business and Economics
lboro.ac.uk/sbe
If we have learned nothing else over the past few years though Brexit and then Covid-19, it has been all too clear that leaders across the mutual sector need to be able to navigate ambiguity and uncertainty, whatever the cause.

This is one of the many skills that the Loughborough MSc helps to foster, building the capability of the individual to both their own benefit and to the advantage of their organisation.
Since this programme first started in 2015, 105 students have joined the MSc and 69 have already graduated after three years of hard but rewarding study. Across the 30 BSA members – and from the 2021 intake, three AFM members – who have seen this programme as a valuable part of their leadership development programmes, their students have also gained a valuable extra: a lasting network of mutual colleagues. The Alumni group is really starting to build momentum, with the promise of what could become an ongoing exposure to new ideas, technology and experience.

The programme has never stood still, although we have always maintained as a core element what one of the founding Advisory Board members described as the ‘mutual raspberry ripple’. Having an Advisory Board which includes the BSA, a number of large, medium and smaller BSA members, plus more recently AFM, has ensured that the programme continues to meet the needs of students and employers within the MSc and apprenticeship framework.

From the fourth student intake employers have had the choice of their students following an apprenticeship, with its clear financial advantage for levy and non-levy payers alike; or the standard route approach which will continue to run in parallel for this seventh cohort.

The programme will continue to evolve, and this cohort will have the benefit of a mix of bespoke modules, and exposure to a breadth of students from many different sectors – an excellent way of helping to promote a diversity of thought and ideas. We commend the programme to you.

DEVELOPING LEADERS FOR FINANCIAL MUTUALS

To perform well, all organisations rely on talented and well-informed executives at all levels capable of making good decisions, sometimes in challenging circumstances.

With the ever-increasing pace of change it is essential that firms and individual employees have the management and leadership capabilities they need to adapt to new, challenging and sometimes ambiguous scenarios – COVID 19 being just one example.

The programme will help member organisations to retain and develop talent, build management and leadership capability and bring an extra dimension to existing professional development within their organisation. Students will have managerial experience at a first line or middle management level. They may have a first degree or equivalent, or have substantial work experience. The programme is suitable for candidates from all functional areas.

Both during and on completion of the programme students have been shown to bring back business benefits for their organisation, including their ability to analyse and apply value-based decision making, manage ambitious and innovative projects and lead teams through strategic change whilst considering risk and governance issues. The investment made in the programme reaps tangible rewards for each participating organisation and student.

The programme is deliberately challenging, designed to stretch the students and teach them how to apply management theory in practice, adapt to new scenarios and implement effective solutions.

To foster success, students are supported by the University, through the teaching team, a workplace tutor and a dedicated administrator. It is also required that students have an employer mentor (potentially their line manager) from within their own organisation.
“MHBS has supported the Loughborough Masters from the very beginning and all of our students have grown personally and professionally from the experience.

Our people’s business skills are key in keeping us a dynamic, flourishing Society. This programme helps develop those skills and is an important path to better leadership.”

Mark Robinson
CEO Market Harborough Building Society

“In a market where attracting and retaining talent is more competitive than ever, the BSA Masters programme offers attractive development opportunities at a great learning institution for likeminded professionals who wish to progress in their careers. The personal development of those colleagues who have benefitted from the programme is evident, with new skills being brought into the Society and a wide network of contacts being built across the sector.

From a personal perspective, the course was instrumental in my own development, supporting my transition from Finance Director to CEO.”

Will Carroll
CEO, Monmouthshire Building Society
Senior Leader Apprenticeships enable organisations to utilise their Apprenticeship Levy or Government co-investment to fund employees to study part-time towards a postgraduate qualification and to develop the management and leadership capabilities required to lead at a senior level.

Apprenticeships are an innovative way of retaining and attracting talent to your organisation. Apprentices are employed by you but will study at Loughborough University. They may be existing staff or new staff you have recruited into a job role that includes an Apprenticeship.

Apprentices spend 20% of their time studying via a combination of face to face, interactive online and work-based learning. The rest of their time is spent in the workplace applying their new skills and knowledge to your organisation.

On the successful completion of their two-year Apprenticeship, students continue for a further third year to complete their MSc in Strategic Leadership.

The Apprenticeship Levy
All employers with a pay bill of more than £3 million automatically pay the Apprenticeship Levy of 0.5 per cent to the Government. The Levy is ring-fenced money which can only be spent on apprenticeships and is forfeited if not used within two years.

Government Co-investment
Organisations with a pay bill of less than £3 million may be eligible for the Government Co-investment fund. In this case, your organisation is responsible for just 5% of the cost of an Apprenticeship.

The payment system is simple with minimal effort for the employer: the Levy or Co-investment funds are transferred to your organisation’s Digital Account and collection is made through the Government Digital Apprenticeship Service (DAS).
